

Lambertus Frederikus Joseph

Born Sunday, April 25 1915

Deceased Wednesday, August 13 1986

Bertus was born in the family home at Ennekerdijk in Borne. Later the family moved to Grotestraat number 109 in Borne. After his marriage in 1946 he moved to Koppelsbrink number 58.

After his primary education at the Jacobusschool in Borne, Bertus went to the local high school for two years.

Although he wanted to complete his tertiary education here his father asked him to join his painting company. At the time he was fourteen.

He remained a painter / decorator until his retirement.

Bertus was a quiet contented man. He lived and worked for his family, consisting of seven children.

With his widely acclaimed bass voice, he sang for many a year in the mixed choir of the St. Stephen Parish in Borne. He also sang in the small male choir which was formed from the main choir.
